

ÆGIDIUS OF ZAMORA - [Aegidius; Egidius]

head of the Franciscan Order, living in Spain during the 13thc. He reported that the Church used only the organ for its various chants, sequences, and hymns.